Kajol received her Padma Shri award

Kajol, who is busy taking care of her kids, especially the newly-born Yug, has to be in Delhi to receive Padma Shri, the fourth highest civilian award of India. So her dear hubby Ajay Devgan will take out time from his shooting to do babysitting for her.

Kajol can't miss the day as she will collect her prestigious Padma Shri in Delhi from the hands of President Pratibha Patil. Of late, she has stopped working in films because her six-months-old son Yug needs her. Thus Ajay, who is in Goa shooting for Rohit Shetty's Singham remake, has decided to babysit the kids in Goa while Kajol receive the Padma Shri award without any tension.

Kajol, sister Tanisha and her mother Tanuja all attended the prestigious event where Kajol finally received her Padma Shri award for her duties to the film industry from the President of India. Congratulations Kajol!
