Cricket Australia's Multicultural Talent and Leadership Program for Young Boys and Girls

Johann Jayasinha and Vernon Tissera from the Young Cricketers Development program TYCDIEP, met with Juhi Gupta Senior officer Multicultural at Cricket Australia's office in Melbourne to discuss regarding the recently developed program called the Multicultural Talent and Leadership Program.

It will provide an elite player performance environment to participants from various backgrounds to gain further cricket experience both on and off the field.

All participants must be aged between 17 and 22 on 1st July 2012.

Multicultural Talent and Leadership Program trials will be combined with Cricket Superstar trials during January and February 2011. Cricket Superstar is a reality show on Foxtel where they search Australia for the next best cricketer.
