

"No aunty I can't stay that long. I tried calling him but his phone is always not available, I was just worried"

"Oh on that note, I wanted to ask you if you knew someone named Mahi?"
"Mahi?"

"A girl has been calling our home phone a lot recently. She has been asking for Raj" "Did he tell you about a girl named Mahi? Is she his girlfriend?"

"No she's not. Aunty you don't know who Mahi is?" Anna asked surprised. How could Raj's mother not know his ex fiancé.

"The name isn't familiar to me. She keeps asking me to tell Raj to call her back. Just yesterday she told me to tell Raj's friends to pass on the message to Raj as well"

"I know her Aunty, I'll take care of it" Anna said anger building up inside of her. How dare that bitch! What was she trying to pull? Warning Anna one day and then bombarding Raj will phone calls the next.
"Did you tell Raj?"

"I told him this morning and I think he also talked to her but didn't give me any information on her" She replied sadly.

"Don't worry Aunty I will sort it out" Anna replied and walked back to her car. She was feeling angry. But where was Raj? What appointment? Questions started popping up inside her and she had to push them down hard otherwise she would have broken down. She had no idea why she was so emotional all of a sudden.

On the way home, Anna decided to stop over at her favourite restaurant and grab some dinner. She walked in and was looking through the take away menu when she noticed two people sitting right at the back talking. She peered over and stared for awhile in that general direction. It was Raj, and the other person was a woman. She had her back to Anna so it was hard to tell who it was. A plethora of questions started to build up inside Anna.

Why is he here with a woman? Especially when he missed our class! How could he do this to me?

It looked like the woman and Raj were arguing about something. Clearly this couldn't be some sort of date. He didn't look happy at all. But Anna still felt sad, he had missed the class, time spent together to be here. She looked at her watch. It was well past 9pm. Had he been with her for the entire time? She wanted to confront them both about it, so decided to approach the table. She felt nervous all of a sudden and decided to turn back around and leave. She couldn't do it.

She left the restaurant as quickly as she could and hoped Raj hadn't seen her. Ten minutes or so later, Raj got up to leave as well. Mahi was still sitting.

"Raj, give us another chance"

"I said no and that won't ever change"

He left her sitting there a lone. But she felt happy, knowing that Anna had seen them. Her plan had gone ahead perfectly. She knew Anna visited the restaurant almost each day after work, and had felt sure Anna would come that night.

Let's see who wins this miss Anna. If I can't have him then neither can you! He was mine first and I will try my best to get him back!

You will lose!
