How to make your vote count. Federal election, Saturday 7 September.

On election day, you will receive two ballot papers: a green one for the House of Representatives and a white one for the Senate. On the green ballot paper you are voting for a representative of your local area in the House of Representatives. On the white ballot paper you are voting for representatives of your state or territory in the Senate.

Don't worry if you make a mistake. You can ask for another ballot paper and start again.
