

There's no one someone won't miss.

Last year 252 people died on our roads. Each one was someone's father, mother, child or friend. There's no one on our roads who someone wouldn't miss. But if we work together, we can achieve our vision of zero deaths and serious injuries. To find out more, visit towardszero.vic.gov.au