

Have you ever longed for a Brand New, Quality lifestyle or investment in the VIBRANT HEART OF RINGWOOD?

Look no further,
National Australia Property Pty Ltd (NAP Group) proudly presents the “RINGWOOD EDGE”, which displays a level of sophistication that is unique and this brand - new architecturally designed luxury apartments are perfect for Owner Occupiers, First Home Buyers, Investors & Downsizees.

Luxurious living in Ringwood has the added advantage of being in close proximity to a world of convenience. From retail and shopping experiences that include the Eastland Shopping Centre and Costco, to quicker mobility by way of the Ringwood Station and East Link being in close proximity, This residence allows you to bask in the lap of luxury while remaining fully connected to the amenities and conveniences you require. Furthermore, as it is in the Ringwood Secondary School Zone, providing your kids with a high-quality education becomes that much easier. Each section of an apartment comes architecturally designed and follows an open-plan living concept to help you maintain the lifestyle you desire.

This three-storey apartment comprises of 1 and 2 bedrooms, 1 and 2 bathrooms, secured basement car parking, Lift throughout the building, intercom entry and the level of detail that has gone into each bedroom is something to behold, and the bathrooms are of an upmarket nature right down to the quality fixtures they exhibit.

National Australia Property has come a long way facing many challenges through a tough market yet has been able to deliver their products at a timely manner. National Australia Property Pty Ltd is an Australian Company that is specialized in property development. We are happy to introduce NAP Group as an outcome of 3 Sri Lankan directors who have years of experience in property development industry. They bring together expertise from diverse backgrounds, in strategic areas ranging from development, creating unique architecture, construction, project management and financial services that spans collectively over many years.

Maduranga Hewa Pelandage, has been running Makray Homes since 2009. His passion has always been building and he has a sound background with building and construction industry. Friendly Personality with the ability of adapting in to changing environment, has enhanced his customer service qualities. He embraces the fact that providing customer-oriented service is the most important thing as he is building their dreams. He has been dealing with various types of projects throughout his career and Project management for Ringwood Edge was done by Makray Homes. His vast knowledge and expertise on the field has sharpened him as a successful developer and builder.

Sumit Jayasuriya, is a renowned tax accountant with his lucrative company in Melbourne. His expertise in home loan services over the past 10 years has gained him a reputation of being able to provide financial facilities with ease and minimum complications. This has made him much sort after amongst his clientele.

Gehan Athale, is the Managing Director of a commercial facilities management company. With over a decade of expertise in facilities management and offices based in South Australia and Western Australia Gehan envisioned that it was an apt time to diversify and he ventured into property development.

Nap Group expertise in diverse and range from Property Development, Construction, Project Management and Investment / Financial Services. Nap group has achieved their reputation by delivering innovative, successful projects in Australia and in Sri Lanka.

Corporate Partners

www.makrayhomes.com.au