THE SPACE

Take a break from reality to relax and unwind with nothing better to do than reconnect with your family and friends on a seaside holiday. All the boyside activities that Rye has to offer are just an easy stroll away from this Beach House getaway. Glorious Rye Front Beach building sandcastles by day and if you can't be bothered cooking it's the same easy stroll to an abundance of restaurants, cafes, takeaway and ice-cream shops on the Rye shopping strip by night. Remember, no Mornington Peninsula Beach Holiday is complete without a trip to the Rye Carnival (seasonal), which other holiday makers have to drive to - but not you! If you're looking for a rest day to just chill out then make yourself at home with a board game, totem tennis, the customary holiday jigsaw puzzle, a wide selection of popular DVD's, read a book, listen to music or just soak up the afternoon sun with drinkies and a chat alongside the tranquil sounds of the gold fish pond. If you're having withdrawals or unfortunately just need to keep on top of those pesky emails, there is a built-in desk area to the side where you can leave your laptop set up and not be in anyone's way. Light filled open plan kitchen, dining, living opening out via French Doors to a fabulous alfresco, fish pond and BBQ area that basks in the afternoon sun. An enormous second living area provides the freedom to enjoy separate activities without disturbing each other. Three Bedroom house all with built in robes and fans to sleep a total of 8.
